Let's Start!

Ouch! I have a bad sunburn!

Learning Outcome

Identify health problems and ways of staying healthy, and use them in a limited range of social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to sunbathe? Why or why not?
- Are you careful in the sun? How?
- Do you think it's important to use sunscreen?

Can Do Statements

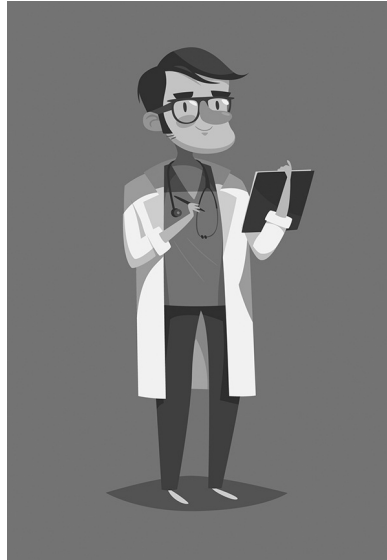

- I can make polite requests.
- I can describe health problems.
- I can make strong suggestions and recommendations.

Let's Explore!

John is not feeling well. He is visiting the ship's doctor. What is the problem?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Doctor: What seems to be the problem today?
- John: I have a bad sunburn on my shoulders and back.
- Doctor: You have to be more careful in the sun.
- John: I also have a headache and I feel feverish.
- Doctor: Do you have muscle cramps?
- John: Yes.
- Doctor: Headache, feeling feverish and muscle cramps are all associated with sunstroke. I strongly suggest you avoid the sun for a few days.
- John: OK.
- Doctor: You must wear a shirt and put on sunblock when you are outside.
- John: Could you recommend a brand?
- Doctor: Any product that has SPF 30 is fine. You should also drink lots of fluids and get some rest.
- John: Could you tell me if I need to take any medication?
- Doctor: No, you don't need anything else.
- John: Thank you, Doctor.
- Doctor: You're welcome.

Learning Points

Talking About Health Problems

Explaining a Problem

You can use the Simple Present tense in certain sentences to describe your health problems.

For example:

I am not feeling well.

I have a cough.

I have a bad back.

I have a bad sunburn.

I have a headache.

I have a sore throat.

I feel feverish.

I have muscle cramps.

Symptoms

When you see a doctor, he or she might ask, "What are your symptoms?"

Symptoms are feelings of illness or discomfort.

Modals Must vs. Should

You can use the modals must, have to and should to give recommendations.

You use must and have to to make very strong recommendations and to talk about necessity.

Should is not as strong. It is a suggestion.

It is common to hear these types of suggestions at the doctor's office.

Examples:

- You must wear a shirt and put on sunblock when you are outside.
- You should also drink lots of fluids and get some rest.
