Let's Start!

Sun ... Sand ... Let's go to the beach!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like going to the beach? Why or why not?
- What activities do you do at the beach? Snorkeling? Scuba diving?

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can talk about things to do or take on a trip.
- I can give orders and/or instructions.

Let's Explore!

John is at the beach. Does he want to go scuba diving?

* When you are at the beach, you can also just say "diving".

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Diving Instructor: Welcome to Pacific Divers Baja California.

John: Thank you. I don't know if I should go diving or snorkeling.

Diving Instructor: Try both! When you are set up with the correct equipment and training, they are both safe and enjoyable activities. Do you like to go swimming in the ocean?

John: For sure.

Diving Instructor: Then go diving. You should go for a dive in the feeding areas off the Baja Peninsula. Those are the best places to see manta rays and sharks.

John: What? Sharks?

Diving Instructor: Don't worry, there's no danger. Sharks don't attack humans. Use good diving equipment and take a lesson with one of our excellent instructors. Don't forget to bring an underwater camera! You could go snorkeling in the afternoon.

John: Sounds cool!

Let's Practice!

Let's practice giving suggestions.

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. You should go for a dive in the feeding areas off the Baja Peninsula.
2. You should buy suntan lotion.
3. You could go snorkeling in the afternoon.
4. We could have lunch on the beach.
5. We could play volleyball.

Let's Practice!

The diving instructor is giving suggestions.

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use Don't worry / Use / Try / Don't forget

1. _____ diving.
2. _____ .
3. _____ to bring an underwater camera!
4. _____ good diving equipment.

Learning Points

Beach Activities

Beach activities like swimming or snorkeling are nouns. Many of these nouns come from verbs.

You add -ing to the verb.

Sometimes, you have to double the final letter before you add -ing.

When you talk about many of these activities, you use the verb go + activity.

You don't use go with the verb play or build.

Verb	Noun
to swim	swimming
to dive	diving
to snorkel	snorkeling
to sunbathe	suntanning
to play (volleyball)	playing (volleyball)
to build (a sandcastle)	building (sandcastles)

Examples:

- I don't know if I should go diving or snorkeling.
- Do you like to go swimming in the ocean?
- Let's go suntanning this afternoon.
